

Practical: Development of a Case Study (DoCS)

Full Marks: 30

Pass Marks: 15

Teaching Hours: 45

Instructions:

- Mid-term examination will be conducted by Campus/College.
- This course offers students to involve in preparation a case study for the partial fulfillment of the requirement which is compulsory to all. For it, students should be in close coordination with their assigned faculty member/s for the completion of the task. The potential area of the task can be on the topic related to approaches and strategies of development including various development agencies and development partners which have contributed to the development of Nepal.
- The course study should be submitted to the respective campus/college. The students should compulsorily present their accomplished task for final evaluation and approval in the presence of respective faculty member/s and external.
- Students should bear the expenses of proposal writing and other related activities as fixed by the respective campuses/colleges.

Course Study Format:

- Face-Sheet (with study title, submitted to Campus/College, submitted by-name of student, T.U. Regd. No. and class roll no.)

Acknowledgements

Contents

- Background of the Issues, Significance of the Issues, Reviews of article/book, Summary.
- References

Appendix

Page Format: Margin- Standard (left 1.5 inch, 1 inch top down & right) Font – Times New Roman, titles font size-14, text font size-12, 1.5 line space, pages: 20-25 at Microsoft Word.